

Coxon Club site re Major Coxson and Muhammad Ali

Coxonclub.com has a lengthy post, complete with photos, about the late hustler extraordinaire Major Coxson, who was slain in 1973 by members of Philadelphia's Black Mafia. The site, which borrows heavily from my work (with attribution, thankfully), discusses things like Coxson's close relationship with boxing legend Muhammad Ali and incorporates long form pieces from South Jersey Magazine, JET, and the New York Times.

This piece borrows heavily from my work but adds some interesting color and tidbits re the legendary hustler by incorporating long form pieces from @SouthJerseyMag, @GetJETmag, and @nytimes. There is one key fact missing, given their close ties (1/2)<https://t.co/2dtA9SXQAq>
